April 2010

April, 2010

Spring is officially here. How can we tell? The birds are chirping early in the morning, trees and flowers are trying to bloom and students have SPRING FEVER! Students are becoming anxious about having a break. They are so deserving of it as well as the staff. Both staff and students have worked very hard to prepare for ISAT. Now that ISAT is over it's time to take a break. Upon returning from our Spring Break staff will resume working on other curriculum topics that should be covered by the end of the year. We will revisit school rules and procedures when we come back from Spring Break. Please go over the student handbook with your child. We expect students to be respectful to themselves, to their peers and all adults in the school.

Ms. Nowels

Spring Break Activities for kids

- 1. Start a Book Club- Read and discuss the same book with friends.
- 2. Inside Fun- Visit Museums
- 3. Sleepover- Watch a dvd, cook popcorn, have a pillow fight.
- 4. Be a mallrat- Try on tons of clothes
- 5. Gaming Party-Have a Video Game Tournament with friends.
- 6. Think Retro- Go roller skating or skateboarding

Tardiness

Tardiness is still a concern since the last published newsletter. Letters are being sent out to notify parents of their child's scheduled detention dates. In order for students to be successful, they need to be in class and arrive on time to school. At the sound of the first bell, students must be in class. Class begins at 8:25 a.m. Students who are late to school must report to the Main Office and receive a tardy pass. *Please Note* The Parent/Student Handbook states that after the 3rd tardy, students will receive an office detention. Office detentions are one hour 3:15-4:15.
